

Barolo 2018 Riserva

RATING 91

The wine presents dark, brooding aromas accompanied by dried blue and red flower notes. An abundance of spice and sandalwood nuances contribute to the bouquet. The palate exhibits a juicy character, hinting at emerging dark hued fruit flavors, but still feels somewhat reserved. This wine has a promising future ahead, allow the wine to mature in the cellar for several more years to experience its full potential. Drink 2026 - 2040 — Jeff Porter

Barolo 2020 Meriame

RATING 90

This Barolo entices with a bouquet of crushed red fruits, dominated by vibrant raspberries and cherries, complemented by delicate wildflower notes. On the palate, the wine reveals a delightful blend of spices and well-integrated oak, harmonizing with the juicy dark berried fruit flavors. Silky tannins and lively acidity create a balanced, enjoyable experience. Drink 2025-2038. — Jeff Porter

Barolo 2020 del Comune di Serralunga d'Alba

RATING 90

Reserved on the nose, this wine's red fruits are like distant objects viewed through binoculars, obscured by a captivating bark and woody character that takes center stage. However, on the palate, the fruit steps into the spotlight, shining with plush and forward flavors. Drink Now - 2035 — Jeff Porter
